

HEALTHCARE SERVICES

---

The United States has the largest healthcare system in the world and Chicago is arguably the capital of that system. In addition to the expansive Illinois Medical District on the Near West Side, the city is home to the American Medical Association, the American Hospital Association, the American Dental Association, the American College of Surgeons, and numerous other health-related organizations, schools and institutions.

Chicago's largest hospitals

In millions

Hospital	Beds	Net Patient Revenues
1. Northwestern Memorial Hospital	665	$981.2
2. University of Chicago Medical Ctr.	578	$839.5
3. Rush University Medical Ctr.	674	$729.2
4. Advocate Christ Medical Ctr. (Oak Lawn)	554	$720.0
5. Loyola University Medical Ctr. (Maywood)	507	$660.0
6. Advocate Lutheran General (Park Ridge)	493	$521.1
7. Evanston Hospital (Evanston)	293	$408.8
8. Central DuPage (Winfield)	316	$407.6
9. University of Illinois Medical Ctr.	396	$393.1
10. Edward Hospital (Naperville)	236	$391.0

SOURCE: Crain's Chicago Business, June 25, 2007

Chicago's largest health insurers

	Enrollment
1. Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Illinois (Chicago)	3,350,467
2. United Healthcare of Illinois Inc. (Chicago)	933,000
3. Humana Inc. (Chicago)	448,500
4. Cigna Healthcare of Illinois Inc. (Chicago)	435,300
5. Aetna Health of Illinois Inc. (Chicago)	345,135
6. Unicare (Chicago)	270,000
7. Interplan Health Group (Arlington Heights)	150,000
8. First Health Group Corp. (Downers Grove)	137,025
9. Great-West Healthcare (Rosemont)	120,038
10. Principal Financial Group Inc. (Oak Brook)	100,000

SOURCE: Crain's Chicago Business, Sept 25, 2006